Events and Seminars

Philip Morphew shares his wisdom and experience through interactive seminars and learning events which we hold during the year. He is also available to speak to groups, organisations and corporate events. (See more information on Philips Speaker Profile – www.philipmorphew.com).

Philips unique background mix of real life experience, diverse business, chiropractic and osteopathy, performance leadership and intuitive awareness gives you a small hint of the depth of insight and wisdom that Philip brings to his audiences.

The seminars and events are open to clients, their family and their friends as well as the public. The purpose of the seminars is to open your mind to the possibilities and to unlock your innate potential.

Philips speaking style is fresh, energised, thought provoking and humorous. He is entertaining to listen to and provides easy to action information that will enhance your life, relationships and help you achieve more in life.
